SYLLABUSES FOR THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF EDUCATION
(EdD)

EEDD6001. Literature review

Candidates are required to attend three Masters level subjects or equivalent that are chosen from an area of the specialization that will contribute to the building up of an assignment in form of a literature review of about 10,000 words.

EEDD6002. Research methods

Candidates are required to attend EdD research seminars to be presented by in-house specialists, guest speakers on particular topics, and research students. In addition, candidates are required to complete an individual negotiated programme of appropriate research methodology modules from Master of Education methodology subjects, individual tutorials, outside workshops, guided reading and self-study. The seminars and the individual programme will contribute to the completion of a 10,000 word paper on research methodology linked to carrying out a project to do with an aspect of the thesis' area of focus.

EEDD6003. Portfolio

Candidates are required to attend another three Masters level subjects or equivalent that will contribute to the development of a 10,000 word portfolio of assessable work relevant to their thesis.

EEDD6004. Thesis

Candidates will complete a thesis of 50,000 to 60,000 words. Candidates may commence their work early in candidature concurrently with the research seminar programmes. The thesis will be assessed on the basis of being (i) an original contribution to knowledge and/or the understanding of educational practice and, (ii) containing material worthy of publication. Candidates will also participate in thesis seminars commencing after confirmation of candidature which will contribute to their research programmes and will serve as forums for presenting their work in progress on a regular basis.
