

REGULATIONS FOR THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF EDUCATION (EdD)

(See also General Regulations)

Ed256 Admission requirements

To be eligible for admission to the programme leading to the degree of Doctor of Education, candidates shall

- (a) comply with the General Regulations;
 - (b) hold either
 - (i) a Bachelor's degree at second class honours and a taught Master's degree or other qualifications of equivalent standard from this University or from another University or comparable institution accepted for this purpose; or
 - (ii) a Bachelor's degree with first class honours from this University or another qualification of equivalent standard from this University or from another University or comparable institution accepted for this purpose;
 - (c) demonstrate a record of at least 4 years of professional experience in an educational institution or services in the education sector or services in other relevant sectors as judged appropriate by the Faculty; and
 - (d) satisfy the examiners in a qualifying examination, if required.

Ed257 Qualifying examination

- (a) A qualifying examination may be set to test candidates' ability to pursue the research project proposed. A qualifying examination shall consist of one or more invigilated written examination papers; additionally, the invigilated written paper(s) may be supplemented by other forms of examinations.
 - (b) Candidates who are required to sit a qualifying examination shall not be permitted to register until all examination requirements are satisfied.

Ed258 Registration

Successful candidates shall in the first instance be granted provisional registration for the EdD degree, with such registration to be confirmed only when the requirements set out in regulation Ed265 below are satisfied.

Ed259 Award of degree

To be eligible for the award of the degree of Doctor of Education, candidates shall

- (a) comply with the General Regulations; and
 - (b) complete the curriculum and satisfy the examiners in accordance with the regulations set out below.

Ed260 Period of study

The programme shall begin in September. The curriculum shall normally extend over a period of not less than 36 months and not more than 72 months for part-time study, or not less than 24 months and not more than 48 months for full-time study.

Ed261 Leave of absence

A candidate who wishes to be absent from Hong Kong and/or the approved course of study and research shall be required to submit a written application for leave of absence. Study leave may be granted for the purposes of study or research outside Hong Kong and non-study leave may be granted when a candidate is best advised for personal, health, or other reasons to have time completely away from his/her academic responsibilities. Unless special circumstances warrant an exception, leave of absence under both categories shall not normally be granted for a cumulative period of more than twelve months for the entire period of study. Any period of study leave granted shall be counted towards the period of study and any period of non-study leave granted shall result in the extension of the period of study by the period of absence.

Ed262 Completion of curriculum

To complete the curriculum, candidates shall

- (a) follow instructions on the syllabuses prescribed and complete all specified work as required;
 - (b) satisfy the examiners in the coursework requirements for the degree as set out in the syllabuses;
 - (c) complete, to the satisfaction of the examiners, a thesis as specified in regulation Ed267 below; and
 - (d) satisfy the examiners at the oral examination.

Ed263 Coursework requirements

Candidates shall be required to take courses and satisfy the coursework requirements as prescribed by the examiners. The objective of the coursework component is to aid research work and to prepare candidates for thesis writing.

Ed264 Supervision and progress

- (a) Candidates shall be required to submit a progress report at six-monthly intervals, and may be required to give one or more seminars on any part of their course of study and research;
 - (b) Candidates may be discontinued if satisfactory progress is not being made.

Ed265 Probation and confirmation of candidature

- (a) Candidates whose applications are accepted shall be subject to a probationary period, which shall not normally exceed 24 months for part-time candidates and 12 months for full-time candidates. By the end of the probationary period, candidates must have
 - (i) satisfactorily completed the 4 core courses;
 - (ii) completed the first three chapters of the thesis to the satisfaction of the Advisory Panel; and
 - (iii) presented a confirmation seminar.
 - (b) At the end of the probationary period, a decision shall be made on whether the candidature shall be confirmed or terminated.

Ed266 Discontinuation

A candidature may be discontinued

- (a) if academic progress is not satisfactory; or
- (b) if the student has failed to meet the requirements as stipulated in this set of Regulations.

Ed267 The thesis

- (a) The thesis should be between 50,000 and 60,000 words long (exclusive of tables, bibliographies, and appendices). The thesis must represent an original contribution to knowledge and/or the understanding of educational practice, and contain material worthy of publication.
 - (b) Candidates shall serve written notice of intention to submit a thesis for examination at least 3 months prior to the expected date of submission. The notice shall be accompanied by a provisional thesis title.
 - (c) Candidates shall not be permitted to submit a thesis until all coursework requirements have been satisfied.
 - (d) Candidates shall be examined by examiners appointed for this purpose both on the thesis itself, and at an oral examination on the subject of the thesis and/or the approved course of study and research. Candidates may also be examined by other means.

Ed268 Thesis examination results

- (a) Candidates who have satisfied the examiners shall be recommended for conferment of the degree of Doctor of Education.
 - (b) Candidates who have not satisfied the examiners in the thesis component:
 - (i) may be required to resubmit the thesis after making corrections and amendments as required by the Board of Examiners, without a new examination; or
 - (ii) may be required to revise and resubmit the thesis for a new examination within a specified period, and may also be required to satisfy the examiners at a new oral examination, or any other examination as appropriate, on the subject of the revised thesis and/or the approved course of study and research; or
 - (iii) may be required to attend a new oral examination, or any other examination as appropriate; or
 - (iv) may be deemed to have failed, without the option of resubmission.

Ed269 Coursework examinations results

- (a) Coursework shall be assessed on a pass/fail basis.
 - (b) Candidates who have not satisfied the examiners in respect of the coursework requirements at the first attempt shall normally be permitted to present themselves for re-examination in the same course. Candidates who do not satisfy the examiners in such re-examination may be required to discontinue their studies.

Ed270 Publication based on thesis

Any publication based on work approved for a higher degree should contain a reference to the effect that the work was submitted to The University of Hong Kong for the award of the degree.

SYLLABUSES FOR THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF EDUCATION (EdD)

Candidates shall be required to satisfactorily complete a total of 7 courses, comprising 4 core courses and 3 elective courses, as described below. The core courses must be completed by the end of the probationary period. The elective courses should be completed before the submission of thesis, and at least two should be chosen from among the Faculty's "Courses on Primary Disciplines" offered especially to Research Higher Degrees Students (including Division-based Primary Discipline Courses and primary-discipline courses offered by individual colleagues), while the remaining courses may be chosen from the Faculty's Taught Master's Degree programmes.

CORE COURSES

EEDD6701. Research methods I

This course provides an overview of research methods. Topics include locating and reviewing research literature, the role of theory, formulating research questions, measurement, selecting methods, and an overview of general approaches such as experimental research, case study, correlational research, and action research.

EEDD6702. Research methods II

This is a continuation of Research Methods I and focuses on doing research in education, including interviewing, observations, transcription, coding, and other procedures, as well as issues of ethics, research integrity, and validity, and generalizability. This course will culminate in the development of a research proposal.

EEDD6800. Thesis writing workshop

The aim of this course is to help students to become more aware of important aspects of writing that contribute to overall communicative success of their thesis, so that they can approach the writing of their theses more systematically and confidently. Topics to be covered include: the structure of different types of theses; the discourse features and language used in reviewing research literature, making explicit the research gap, stating hypotheses or research questions, reporting and discussing results as well as findings; the writing of abstracts, introductions and conclusions; the use of verbal signposts and verb tenses across the thesis; and issues of academic language and delicacy.

EEDD6900. Issues in education

This course is structured as a forum consisting of multiple sessions for students to explore various generic educational issues. Each session will be a combination of a guest lecture, discussions, group/individual work, presentations, and debate.
