

REGULATIONS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ECONOMICS
(BEcon)

These regulations apply to students admitted in the academic year 2005-2006 and thereafter.

(See also General Regulations and Regulations for First Degree Curricula)

Admission to the degree

- BE 1 To be eligible for admission to the degree of Bachelor of Economics, candidates shall
- (a) comply with the General Regulations;
 - (b) comply with the Regulations for First Degree Curricula; and
 - (c) satisfy all the requirements of the curriculum in accordance with the regulations that follow and the syllabuses of the degree.

Length of study

- BE 2 The curriculum shall normally require six semesters of full-time study, spreading over three academic years. Candidates shall in any case be required to complete the curriculum within five academic years, unless otherwise permitted by the Dean of the Faculty or his designate.

Completion of the curriculum

- BE 3 To complete the curriculum, candidates
- (a) shall satisfy the requirements prescribed in UG 3 of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula;
 - (b) shall enrol and attempt examination in not less than 180 credits of courses, in the manner specified in the syllabuses;
 - (c) shall normally be required to satisfactorily complete at least 60 credits of courses in an academic year, in a manner as prescribed in the syllabuses;
 - (d) shall normally select not less than 24 and not more than 39 credits of courses in each regular semester; and not more than 78 credits in an academic year¹, unless otherwise permitted or required by the Dean of the Faculty or his designate;
 - (e) may select not more than 12 credits of courses in each summer semester², unless otherwise permitted or required by the Dean of the Faculty or his designate;
 - (f) may be required by the Dean of the Faculty or his designate to take a reduced study load if their academic progression is unsatisfactory.

Advanced standing

- BE 4 Advanced standing may be granted to candidates in recognition of studies completed successfully in an approved institution of higher education elsewhere in accordance with UG 2 of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula. Advanced credits granted shall not be included in the calculation of the Semester GPA, Cumulative GPA or taken into consideration for the honours classification of the degree to be awarded.

Selection of courses

BE 5 Candidates shall select courses in accordance with these regulations and the guidelines specified in the syllabuses before the beginning of each semester. Changes to the selection of courses may be made during an add-drop period designated for each semester, and such changes shall not be reflected in the transcript of the candidates. Requests for changes after the designated add-drop period of a semester shall not be considered, and candidates withdrawing from any course without permission after the designated add-drop period of a semester shall be given an F grade.

BE 6 Candidates shall not be permitted to select a second- or third-year course for which the failed course forms a prerequisite unless permission is given by the department concerned to sit a qualifying examination in the failed course and satisfy the examiners in this.

Assessment

BE 7 Candidates shall be assessed for each of the courses which they have registered for, and assessment may be conducted in any one or any combination of the following manners: written examinations or tests, continuous assessment of performance, laboratory work, field work, research or project reports, or in any other manner as specified in the syllabuses.

Grades

BE 8 Grades shall be awarded in accordance with UG 5 of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula.

BE 9 Candidates shall not be permitted to repeat courses for which they have received a pass grade for upgrading purposes.

Absence from examination

BE 10 Failure to take the examination as scheduled will automatically result in course failure under normal circumstances. Candidates who are unable, because of illness or other acceptable reason, to be present at any examinations of a course, may apply for permission to present themselves for a supplementary at some other time. Failure to sit for the supplementary examination as arranged shall automatically result in course failure.

Failure in examination

BE 11 Candidates who have failed a course will be required to retake the course again or to take another course as substitution in the case of failure in an elective course.

BE 12 The maximum number of attempts for a particular course or requirement, including retakes and re-examinations, is three.

Unsatisfactory performance

BE 13 Candidates shall be put on probation, in accordance with the arrangements of the Faculty, if their semester GPA is lower than 1.5 in any regular semester; and shall be recommended for discontinuation under the provisions of General Regulations G 12 if their semester GPA is lower than 1.5 for two consecutive regular semesters disregarding any summer semester or period of leave of absence in between.

Award of degree

BE 14 To be eligible for the award of the degree of BEcon, candidates shall have

- (a) achieved a cumulative GPA of 1.5 or above;
 - (b) accumulated a minimum of 180 credits and passed all the compulsory courses required in the syllabuses; and
 - (c) satisfied the requirements in UG 3 of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula.

Degree classification

BE 15 The degree of Bachelor of Economics shall be awarded in five divisions:

First Class Honours
Second Class Honours Division One
Second Class Honours Division Two
Third Class Honours
Pass

BE 16 The classification of honours shall be determined by the Board of Examiners at its full discretion by taking into account the overall performance of the candidates and other relevant factors as appropriate.

¹ An 'academic year' comprises two regular semesters, with dates as prescribed by the Senate each year. A 'summer semester' may be organised in addition to the two regular semesters.

² Students are normally not allowed to take summer course(s) in their final-year of study.

SYLLABUSES FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ECONOMICS

These syllabuses apply to students admitted in the academic year 2007-2008 and thereafter.

1. Candidates must enrol and attempt examination in not less than 180 credits of courses in accordance with the regulations and the syllabuses. In addition, the 180 credits of courses should be completed in the following manner:

Language/Information Technology/Broadening courses (Note a)	24 credits
Core courses - first year (Note b)	24 credits
- second/third year	18 credits
Second/third year Economics/Finance electives	42 credits
Intra-faculty electives/Inter-faculty electives	72 credits
2. To fulfil the graduation requirement of this degree as specified by the Board of the Faculty of Business and Economics in accordance with UG 3 of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula, candidates must satisfactorily complete the credits of courses with an asterisk(*) beside. Those courses are in one of the following areas of study: English language studies, Chinese language studies, science and technology, culture and value studies, and information technology.
3. The courses listed will not necessarily be offered every year; from time to time, depending on the exigencies of staffing, additional courses may be offered. The School of Economics and Finance will only offer electives for which sufficient student demand has been expressed in any one year.
4. For courses offered by the School of Economics and Finance, the final examination is normally 2 hours in length, unless otherwise specified by individual teacher at the start of the semester. Final grading will be determined by performance in the examination and an assessment of coursework in a ratio that is to be announced by the teacher at the beginning of each semester.
5. Candidates may take a maximum of 78 credits of Year I level courses, unless otherwise specified in the syllabuses. "ECEN2905 English for professional communication for economics and finance students" is counted as a Year I level course for this purpose.
6. Candidates are required to take not less than 60 but not more than 96 credits of second/third year courses from those listed in the BEcon curriculum. 18 of the 60 credits are core: ECON2101, ECON2102, and ECON0701, and they must be taken in the second year of study.
7. Candidates must select 72 credits of intra-faculty/inter-faculty electives by taking at least 36 credits of intra-faculty electives (courses offered by the School of Economics and Finance or the School of Business) and at least 24 credits of inter-faculty electives (courses offered by other departments).
8. Minor (optional)
Candidates admitted in the academic year 2004-05 and thereafter are given an option to pursue minor(s) according to the criteria of the section of "Minor Programs Available to FBE students".
9. Final year candidates may select up to four courses offered under the syllabuses for the Master of Economics (MEcon) as third year economics electives, subject to availability and the approval of the Director of the School of Economics and Finance. Each of these MEcon courses carries 6 credits, unless otherwise specified.
10. Candidates are required to take at least one 6-credit HKU course as prescribed in the syllabuses, with international or global content, and excluding courses for the fulfillment of Science and technology, Culture and value requirement, or any language courses. See the list of "International/ Global Content Course for FBE Students" on page 549.
11. Candidates are not permitted to enrol in courses where significant portions of the course contents overlap with each other, or where the courses are mutually exclusive. See the list of "Mutually Exclusive Course for FBE Students" on page 550.

Notes

- (a) Courses marked with * and # in Year one and Year two syllabuses.
