

REGULATIONS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (LAW)
[BBA(Law)]

These regulations apply to students admitted in the academic year 2010-2011 and thereafter.

(See also General Regulations and Regulations for First Degree Curricula)

Admission to the degree

BBA(LAW) 1 To be eligible for admission to the degree of Bachelor of Business Administration (Law), candidates shall

- (a) comply with the General Regulations;
 - (b) comply with the Regulations for First Degree Curricula; and
 - (c) satisfy all the requirements of the curriculum in accordance with these regulations and syllabuses.

Period of study

BBA(LAW) 2 The curriculum for the degree of Bachelor of Business Administration (Law) shall normally require six semesters of full-time study, spreading over three academic years, and shall include any assessment to be held during and/or at the end of each semester. Candidates shall in any case be required to complete the curriculum within five academic years, unless otherwise required or permitted by the Board of Studies in Business Administration and Law.

BBA(LAW) 3 Students who obtain the degree of BBA(Law) after three years of study may, if they so wish, undertake the fourth and fifth years of study, leading to the award of the degree of Bachelor of Laws (LLB) (See also Regulations for the Degree of Bachelor of Laws (LLB) awarded in conjunction with the Degree of Bachelor of Business Administration (Law)).

Curriculum requirements and progression in curriculum

BBA(LAW) 4 To complete the curriculum, candidates

- (a) shall satisfy the requirements prescribed in UG 5 of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula;
- (b) shall enroll and attempt examination in not fewer than 189 credits of courses, or for candidates who opt to pursue the major in Accounting, shall enroll and attempt examination in not fewer than 201 credits of courses, in the manner specified in the syllabuses;
- (c) shall normally be required to enroll in at least 60 credits of courses in an academic year¹, in a manner as prescribed in the syllabuses;
- (d) shall normally be required to take not fewer than 24 credits nor more than 36 credits in any one semester (except the summer semester), or except in the last semester of study when candidates may be required to take fewer than 24 credits to satisfy the outstanding curriculum requirements;
- (e) may, of their own volition, take further credits during the regular or summer semesters², accumulating up to a maximum of 72 credits in one academic year¹;
- (f) may, with the approval of the Board of Studies in Business Administration and Law, exceed 72 credits in an academic year¹ provided that the total number of credits taken shall not exceed 216 credits; or where courses are taken to make up for failed credits are inclusive, the total number of credits shall not exceed 360 credits;
- (g) shall select courses accumulating not fewer than 84 credits to declare a first major in Legal Studies and not fewer than 72 credits for a second major in Business, as prescribed in the syllabuses, and to take Business or Law electives to make up the balance of 189 credits;

- candidates who opt to pursue the major in Accounting shall select courses accumulating 96 credits to declare a first major in Accounting and 84 credits for a second major in Legal Studies, as prescribed in the syllabuses;
- (h) may be required by the Board of Studies to take a reduced study load if their academic progression is unsatisfactory.

Advanced standing

BBA(LAW) 5 Advanced standing may be granted to candidates in recognition of studies completed successfully in an approved institution of higher education elsewhere in accordance with UG 2 of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula. Advanced standing credits granted shall not be included in the calculation of the Semester, Year or Cumulative GPA nor taken into consideration for the honours classification of the degree to be awarded.

Selection of Courses

BBA(LAW) 6 Candidates shall select courses in accordance with these regulations and the guidelines specified in the syllabuses before the beginning of each semester. Changes to the selection of courses may be made during an add-drop period designated for each semester, and such changes shall not be reflected in the transcript of the candidates. Requests for changes after the designated add-drop period of a semester shall not be considered, and candidates withdrawing from any course without permission after the designated add-drop period of a semester shall be given an F grade.

BBA(LAW) 7 Candidates shall not be permitted to select a second- or third-year course for which the failed course forms a prerequisite unless permission is given by the department concerned to sit a qualifying examination in the failed course and satisfy the examiners in this.

Assessment

BBA(LAW) 8 Candidates shall be assessed for each of the courses which they have registered for, and assessment may be conducted in any one or any combination of the following manners: written examinations or tests, continuous assessment of performance, laboratory work, field work, research or project reports, or in any other manner as specified in the syllabuses.

Grades

BBA(LAW) 9 Grades shall be awarded in accordance with UG 8(a) of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula.

BBA(LAW) 10 Candidates shall not be permitted to repeat courses for which they have received a pass grade for the purpose of upgrading.

Absence from examination

BBA (LAW) 11 Failure to take the examination as scheduled will automatically result in course failure under normal circumstances. Candidates who are unable, because of illness or other acceptable reason, to be present at any examinations of a course, may apply for permission to present themselves for a supplementary examination to be held not later than the beginning of the first semester of the following academic year. Failure to sit for the supplementary examination as arranged shall automatically result in course failure. Any supplementary examination shall be part of that academic year's examinations, and the provisions made in the regulations for failure at the first attempt shall apply accordingly.

Failure to pass a course

BBA(LAW) 12

- (a) Any candidate who has failed to pass a course or courses in the manner provided for in these Regulations may be permitted by the Board of Examiners
 - (i) to sit a re-examination (or take any relevant re-assessment); or
 - (ii) to repeat the entire course or courses by following instruction and taking the prescribed examination (or any relevant assessment); or
 - (iii) to undertake the study of any alternative course or courses that enable completion of the curriculum in case that the course concerned is an elective course.
 - (b) Where candidates are permitted or required to present themselves for re-assessment/ re-examination/ assessment in an alternative course under (a) above, the new grade obtained together with the previous F grade shall be recorded on the transcript and shall be included in the calculation of the semester GPA and the cumulative GPA for the purposes of determining the eligibility for award of the degree and the honours classifications.

Unsatisfactory performance

BBA(LAW) 13 Candidates shall be recommended for discontinuation under the provisions of General Regulations G 12 and UG4(e) if they have:

- (a) failed to complete successfully 36 or more credits in two consecutive semesters (not including the summer semester), except where they are not required to take such a number of credits in the two given semesters, or
 - (b) failed to achieve an average Semester GPA of 1.0 or higher for two consecutive semesters, or
 - (c) exceeded the maximum period of registration specified in BBA(LAW) 2.

Award of degree

BBA(LAW) 14 To be eligible for the award of the degree of Bachelor of Business Administration (Law), candidates shall have

- (a) achieved a cumulative GPA of 1.0 or above;
 - (b) accumulated a minimum of 189 credits (201 credits for Accounting major) and passed all the compulsory courses required in the syllabuses; and
 - (c) satisfied the requirements in UG 5 of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula.

Degree classification

BBA(LAW) 15 The degree of Bachelor of Business Administration (Law) shall be published in five divisions:

First Class Honours
Second Class Honours Division One
Second Class Honours Division Two
Third Class Honours
Pass

and a pass list shall be posted on Faculty notice boards.

¹ An 'academic year' comprises two regular semesters, with dates as prescribed by the Senate each year. A 'summer semester' may be organised in addition to the two regular semesters.

² Students are normally not allowed to take summer course(s) in their final-year of study.
