

REGULATIONS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ECONOMICS
(BECON)

These regulations apply to students admitted in the academic year 2010-2011 and thereafter.

(See also General Regulations and Regulations for First Degree Curricula)

Admission to the degree

- BE 1 To be eligible for admission to the degree of Bachelor of Economics, candidates shall
- (a) comply with the General Regulations;
 - (b) comply with the Regulations for First Degree Curricula; and
 - (c) satisfy all the requirements of the curriculum in accordance with the regulations that follow and the syllabuses of the degree.

Period of study

BE 2 The curriculum for the degree of Bachelor of Economics shall normally require six semesters of full-time study, spreading over three academic years, and shall include any assessment to be held during and / or at the end of each semester. Candidates shall in any case be required to complete the curriculum within five academic years, unless otherwise required or permitted by the Board of the Faculty.

Curriculum requirement and progression in curriculum

- BE 3 To complete the curriculum, candidates
- (a) shall satisfy the requirements prescribed in UG 5 of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula;
 - (b) shall enroll and attempt examination in not fewer than 180 credits of courses, in the manner specified in the syllabuses;
 - (c) shall normally be required to enroll in at least 60 credits of courses in an academic year¹, in a manner as prescribed in the syllabuses;
 - (d) shall normally be required to take not fewer than 24 credits nor more than 30 credits in any one semester (except the summer semester), or except in the last semester of study when candidates may be required to take fewer than 24 credits to satisfy the outstanding curriculum requirements;
 - (e) may, of their own volition, take further credits during the regular or summer semesters², accumulating up to a maximum of 72 credits in one academic year¹;
 - (f) may, with the approval of the Board of Faculty, exceed 72 credits in an academic year¹ provided that the total number of credits taken shall not exceed 216 credits; or where courses taken to make up for failed credits are inclusive, the total number of credits shall not exceed 360 credits;
 - (g) shall select courses accumulating 84 credits to declare a major in Economics, as prescribed in the syllabuses, and to take electives to make up the balance of 180 credits;
 - (h) may be required by the Board of the Faculty to take a reduced study load if their academic progression is unsatisfactory.

Advanced standing

BE 4 Advanced standing may be granted to candidates in recognition of studies completed successfully in an approved institution of higher education elsewhere in accordance with UG 2 of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula. Advanced standing credits granted shall not be included in the calculation of the Semester, Year or Cumulative GPA, nor taken into consideration for the honours classification of the degree to be awarded.

Selection of courses

BE 5 Candidates shall select courses in accordance with these regulations and the guidelines specified in the syllabuses before the beginning of each semester. Changes to the selection of courses may be made during an add-drop period designated for each semester, and such changes shall not be reflected in the transcript of the candidates. Requests for changes after the designated add-drop period of a semester shall not be considered, and candidates withdrawing from any course without permission after the designated add-drop period of a semester shall be given an F grade.

BE 6 Candidates shall not be permitted to select a second- or third-year course for which the failed course forms a prerequisite unless permission is given by the department concerned to sit a qualifying examination in the failed course and satisfy the examiners in this.

Assessment

BE 7 Candidates shall be assessed for each of the courses which they have registered for, and assessment may be conducted in any one or any combination of the following manners: written examinations or tests, continuous assessment of performance, laboratory work, field work, research or project reports, or in any other manner as specified in the syllabuses.

Grades

BE 8 Grades shall be awarded in accordance with UG 8(a) of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula.

BE 9 Candidates shall not be permitted to repeat courses for which they have received a pass grade for upgrading purposes.

Absence from examination

BE 10 Failure to take the examination as scheduled will automatically result in course failure under normal circumstances. Candidates who are unable, because of illness or other acceptable reason, to be present at any examinations of a course, may apply for permission to present themselves for a supplementary examination to be held not later than the beginning of the first semester of the following academic year. Failure to sit for the supplementary examination as arranged shall automatically result in course failure. Any supplementary examination shall be part of that academic year's examinations, and the provisions made in the regulations for failure at the first attempt shall apply accordingly.

Failure in examination

BE 11 Candidates are required to make up for a failed course in the following manner:

- (a) undergoing re-assessment/ re-examination in the failed course to be held no later than the end of the following semester (not including the summer semester); or
- (b) re-submitting failed coursework, without having to repeat the same course of instruction; or
- (c) repeating the failed course by undergoing instruction and satisfying the assessments; or

- (d) for an elective course, taking another course in lieu and satisfying the assessment requirements.

BE 12 The maximum number of attempts for a particular course or requirement is three.

Unsatisfactory performance

BE 13 Candidates shall be recommended for discontinuation under the provisions of General Regulations G 12 and UG4(e) if they have:

- (a) failed to complete successfully 36 or more credits in two consecutive semesters (not including the summer semester), except where they are not required to take such a number of credits in the two given semesters, or
 - (b) failed to achieve an average Semester GPA of 1.0 or higher for two consecutive semesters, or
 - (c) exceeded the maximum period of registration specified in BE 2.

Award of degree

BE 14 To be eligible for the award of the degree of Bachelor of Economics, candidates shall have

- (a) achieved a cumulative GPA of 1.0 or above;
 - (b) accumulated a minimum of 180 credits and passed all the compulsory courses required in the syllabuses; and
 - (c) satisfied the requirements in UG 5 of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula.

Degree classification

BE 15 The classification of honours shall be determined by the Board of Examiners at its full discretion by taking into account the overall performance of the candidates and other relevant factors as appropriate.

A list of the successful candidates for the degree Bachelor of Economics shall be published in five divisions:

First Class Honours
Second Class Honours Division One
Second Class Honours Division Two
Third Class Honours
Pass

and a pass list shall be posted on Faculty notice boards.

¹ An 'academic year' comprises two regular semesters, with dates as prescribed by the Senate each year. A 'summer semester' may be organised in addition to the two regular semesters.

² Students are normally not allowed to take summer course(s) in their final-year of study.

SYLLABUSES FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ECONOMICS

These syllabuses apply to students admitted in the academic year 2010-2011 and thereafter.

1. Candidates must enroll and attempt examination in not fewer than 180 credits of courses in accordance with the regulations and the syllabuses. In addition, the 180 credits of courses should be completed in the following manner:

UG 5 requirements [21 credits]
Language*	9 credits
HKU Common Core Curriculum*	12 credits
Major in Economics [84 credits]
- First year Core courses	24 credits
- Second year Core courses	18 credits
- Second/third year disciplinary electives	42 credits
Free Electives [75 credits]	75 credits
Total credits for degree programme	180 credits

2. To fulfill the graduation requirement of this degree as specified by the Board of the Faculty of Business and Economics in accordance with UG 5 of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula, candidates must satisfactorily complete the credits of courses identified by an asterisk(*). Those courses include the following areas of study: English language enhancement (6 credits), Chinese language enhancement (3 credits) and Common Core courses (12 credits).
3. The Common Core courses are categorized under four Areas of Inquiry (AoI): Scientific and Technological Literacy, Humanities, Global Issues, and China: Culture, State and Society. Candidates must complete a total of 12 credits, selecting no more than 6 credits from each Area of Inquiry.
4. The courses listed in the syllabus will not necessarily be offered every year; from time to time, depending on the exigencies of staffing, additional courses may be offered. The School of Economics and Finance will only offer electives for which sufficient student demand has been expressed in any one year.
5. For courses offered by the School of Economics and Finance, the final examination is normally 2 hours in length, unless otherwise specified by individual teacher at the start of the semester. Final grading will be determined by performance in the examination (40-60%) and an assessment of coursework (40-60%) except for final project/ final papers which will be assessed by 100% coursework.
6. Candidates may take a maximum of 78 credits of junior level courses, unless otherwise specified in the syllabuses. "CAES2905 English for professional communication for economics and finance students" is counted as a junior level course for this purpose.
7. Candidates are required to take not fewer than 60 of second/third year courses from those listed in the BEcon syllabus. 18 of the 60 credits are core courses inclusive of ECON2101, ECON2102, and ECON0701, and they must be taken in the second year of study.
8. Additional Major/ Minor
Candidates are allowed to pursue additional FBE minors according to the criteria listed in the section of "Minor Programs Available to FBE students". Candidates are also free to pursue additional majors or minors in disciplines outside of this Faculty. In pursuing a major/minor candidates are likely to take additional credits which will exceed 180 credits, up to a maximum of 216 credits for the entire degree programme.

9. Final year candidates may select up to four courses offered under the syllabuses for the Master of Economics (MEcon) as third year economics electives, subject to availability and the approval of the Director of the School of Economics and Finance. Each of these MEcon courses carries 6 credits, unless otherwise specified.
10. To gain international or global perspectives, candidates are strongly encouraged to enroll in a course with international or global content or by taking a Common Core course in Global Issues (AoI). A suggested list of “International/ Global Content Course for FBE Students” can be found on page 92.
11. Candidates are not permitted to enroll in courses where significant portions of the course contents overlap with each other, or where the courses are mutually exclusive. See the list of “Mutually Exclusive Course for FBE Students” on page 93.
