

REGULATIONS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (LAW) (BBA[Law])

These regulations apply to candidates who are admitted to the BBA(Law) and LLB integrated double-degree curriculum in the academic year 2013-2014 and thereafter but opt out of the LLB degree to pursue the 4-year BBA(Law) only.

(See also General Regulations and Regulations for First Degree Curricula)

Admission to the degree

BBA(LAW)1 To be eligible for admission to the degree of Bachelor of Business Administration (Law) candidates shall

- (a) comply with the General Regulations;
 - (b) comply with the Regulations for First Degree Curricula; and
 - (c) satisfy all the requirements of the curriculum in accordance with these regulations and syllabuses.

Period of study

BBA(LAW)2 The curriculum for the degree of Bachelor of Business Administration (Law) shall normally require eight semesters of full-time study, spreading over four academic years, and shall include any assessment to be held during and/or at the end of each semester. The maximum period of registration is equivalent to a period which is 150% of the curriculum's normative period of study. Candidates shall in any case be required to complete the curriculum within six academic years, unless otherwise required or permitted by the Board of Studies in Business Administration and Law.

Curriculum requirements and progression in curriculum

BBA(LAW)3 To complete the curriculum, candidates

- (a) shall satisfy the requirements prescribed in UG 5 of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula¹;
- (b) shall enroll and attempt examination in not fewer than 240 credits of courses, in the manner specified in the syllabuses;
- (c) shall normally be required to enroll in at least 60 credits of courses in an academic year², in a manner as prescribed in the syllabuses;
- (d) shall normally be required to take not fewer than 24 credits nor more than 30 credits in any one semester (except the summer semester), or except in the last semester of study when candidates may be required to take fewer than 24 credits to satisfy the outstanding curriculum requirements;
- (e) may, of their own volition, take further credits during the regular or summer semesters³ accumulating up to a maximum of 72 credits in one academic year²;
- (f) may, with the approval of the Board of Studies in Business Administration and Law, exceed 72 credits in an academic year² provided that the total number of credits taken shall not exceed 288 credits; or where courses taken to make up for failed credits are inclusive, the total number of credits shall not exceed 432 credits for the maximum period of registration specified in BBA(LAW) 2;
- (g) may select not more than 12 credits of courses in each summer semester³, unless otherwise permitted by the Board of Studies;
- (h) shall select courses accumulating not fewer than 72 credits to declare a major in Legal Studies⁴ and not fewer than 72 credits for a major in Business, as prescribed in the syllabuses,;

candidates who opt to pursue the Accounting stream shall select courses accumulating not fewer than 108 credits to declare a Professional Core in Accounting and not fewer than 72 credits for a major in Legal Studies⁴, as prescribed in the syllabuses; and to take electives to make up the balance of 240 credits; and

- (i) may be required by the Board of Studies to take a reduced study load of not fewer than 24 credits per semester if their academic progression is unsatisfactory.

Advanced standing

BBA(LAW)4 Advanced standing may be granted to candidates in recognition of studies completed successfully, in accordance with UG 2 of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula. The maximum number of advanced standing credits that may be granted is up to one-half the number of credits required for the award of the degree. Advanced standing credits granted shall not be included in the calculation of the Semester, Year or Cumulative GPA nor taken into consideration for the honours classification of the degree to be awarded.

Exemption

BBA(LAW)5 Candidates may be exempted, with or without special conditions attached, from any of the requirements in the syllabuses by the Board of Studies. Candidates who are so exempted must replace the number of exempted credits with courses of the same credit value.

Selection of courses

BBA(LAW)6 Candidates shall select courses in accordance with these regulations and the guidelines specified in the syllabuses before the beginning of each semester. Changes to the selection of courses may be made during an add-drop period designated for each semester, and such changes shall not be reflected in the transcript of the candidates. Requests for changes after the designated add-drop period of a semester shall not be considered, and candidates withdrawing from any course without permission after the designated add-drop period of a semester shall be given an F grade.

BBA(LAW)7 Candidates shall not be permitted to select a course for which the failed course forms a prerequisite unless permission is given by the department concerned to sit a qualifying examination in the failed course and satisfy the examiners in this.

Assessment

BBA(LAW)8

- (a) Candidates shall be assessed for each of the courses for which they have registered, and assessment may be conducted in any one or any combination of the following manners: written examinations or tests, continuous assessment of performance, laboratory work, field work, research or project reports, or in any other manner as specified in the syllabuses; and
 - (b) There shall be no appeal against the results of examinations and all other forms of assessment in accordance with UG 7(e) of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula.

Grades

BBA(LAW)9 Grades shall be awarded in accordance with UG 8 of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula.

BBA(LAW)10 Candidates shall not be permitted to repeat courses for which they have received a pass grade for the purpose of upgrading.

Absence from examination

BBA(LAW)11 Failure to take the examination as scheduled will automatically result in course failure under normal circumstances. Candidates who are unable, because of illness or other acceptable reason, to be present at any examinations of a course, may apply for permission to present themselves for a supplementary examination to be held not later than the beginning of the first semester of the following academic year. Failure to attend the supplementary examination as arranged shall automatically result in course failure. Any supplementary examination shall be part of that academic year's examinations, and the provisions made in the regulations for failure at the first attempt shall apply accordingly.

Failure to pass a course

BBA(LAW)12

- (a) Any candidate who has failed to pass a course or courses in the manner provided for in these Regulations may be permitted by the Board of Examiners
 - (i) to undergo re-assessment/re-examination in the failed course to be held no later than the end of the following semester (not including the summer semester); or
 - (ii) to re-submit failed coursework, without having to repeat the same course of instruction (for Law courses); or
 - (iii) to repeat the failed course by undergoing instruction and satisfying the assessments; or
 - (iv) for elective courses, to take another course in lieu and satisfy the assessment requirements.
- (b) Where candidates are permitted or required to present themselves for re-assessment/re-examination/assessment in an alternative course under (a) above, the new grade obtained together with the previous F grade shall be recorded on the transcript and shall be included in the calculation of the Semester GPA and the Cumulative GPA for the purposes of determining the eligibility for award of the degree and the honours classifications.

BBA(LAW)13 The maximum number of attempts for a particular course or requirement is three.

Unsatisfactory performance

BBA(LAW)14 Candidates shall be recommended for discontinuation under the provisions of General Regulation G 12 and UG 4(e) of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula if they have:

- (a) failed to complete successfully 36 or more credits in two consecutive semesters (not including the summer semester), except where they are not required to take such a number of credits in the two given semesters; or
 - (b) failed to achieve an average Semester GPA of 1.0 or higher for two consecutive semesters (not including the summer semester); or
 - (c) exceeded the maximum period of registration specified in BBA(LAW) 2.

Award of degree

BBA(LAW)15 To be eligible for the award of the degree of Bachelor of Business Administration (Law), candidates shall have

- (a) achieved a Cumulative GPA of 1.0 or above;
- (b) accumulated a minimum of 240 credits and passed all the compulsory courses required in the

- syllabuses; and
- (c) satisfied the requirements in UG 5 of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula¹.

Degree classification

BBA(LAW)16

- (a) Honours classification shall be awarded in five divisions: First Class Honours, Second Class Honours Division One, Second Class Honours Division Two, Third Class Honours, and Pass. The classification of honours shall be determined by the Board of Examiners for the degree in accordance with the following Cumulative GPA (CGPA) scores, with all courses taken (including failed courses) carrying equal weighting:

Class of honours	CGPA range
First Class	3.60 – 4.30
Second Class	(2.40 – 3.59)
Division One	3.00 – 3.59
Division Two	2.40 – 2.99
Third Class	1.70 – 2.39
Pass	1.00 – 1.69

- (b) Honours classification may not be determined solely on the basis of a candidate's Cumulative GPA and the Board of Examiners for the degree may, at its absolute discretion and with justification, award a higher class of honours to a candidate deemed to have demonstrated meritorious academic achievement but whose Cumulative GPA falls below the range stipulated in BBA(LAW) 16(a) of the higher classification by not more than 0.05 of a grade point.
- (c) A list of candidates who have successfully completed all degree requirements shall be posted on Faculty noticeboards.

² An 'academic year' comprises two regular semesters, with dates as prescribed by the Senate each year. A 'summer semester' may be organised in addition to the two regular semesters.

³ Candidates are normally not allowed to take summer course(s) in their final-year of study.

SYLLABUSES FOR THE DEGREE OF
BACHELOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (LAW)
(BBA[Law])

This syllabus applies to candidates who are admitted to the BBA(Law) and LLB integrated double-degree curriculum in the academic year 2014-15 and thereafter but opt out of the LLB degree to pursue the 4-year BBA(Law) only.

1. Candidates must enroll and attempt examination in not fewer than 240 credits of courses in accordance with the regulations and the syllabuses. In addition, the 240 credits of courses should be completed in the following manner:

Free electives (any courses except Common Core courses) 12 credits

Total credits of degree programme 240 credits

2. To fulfill the graduation requirement of this degree as specified by the Board of Studies in Business Administration and Law in accordance with UG 5 of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula, candidates must satisfactorily complete the credits of courses identified by an asterisk (*). Those courses include the following areas of study: English language enhancement (6 credits), Chinese language enhancement (6 credits) and Common Core courses (36 credits), and successful completion of a capstone experience.
3. A pass in both “LLAW1013 Legal research and writing I” and “LLAW2017 Legal research and writing II” (as an integrated course) shall be deemed to satisfy the “English in the Discipline” requirement under UG 5(a) of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula.
4. The Common Core courses are categorized under four Areas of Inquiry (AoI): Scientific and Technological Literacy, Humanities, Global Issues, and China: Culture, State, and Society. Candidates must complete a total of 36 credits, selecting not more than one course (6 credits) in each Area of Inquiry in any academic year; and at least one course (6 credits) and not more than two courses (12 credits) in each Area of Inquiry during the first three years of study.
5. The following courses are designated as Faculty Core courses: ACCT1101, ECON1210, FINA1310, and a statistics course as prescribed in the syllabus. Candidates are not required to re-take Faculty Core courses where any of these courses form part of the requirements of a second major or a minor offered by the Faculty of Business and Economics, however, candidates must complete an equivalent number of credits of free electives in lieu of the Faculty Core courses.
6. Candidates who opt to pursue the Business stream shall complete four courses (24 credits) that constitute one of the five majors in the BBA programme: (i) Business Design and Innovation (BDI)[#], (ii) Human Resource Management (HRM), (iii) Information Systems, (iv) Marketing, or (v) Wealth Management. Please refer to the Syllabus for the Degree of Bachelor of Business Administration for the specific requirements of individual BBA majors.
7. The courses listed in the syllabus will not necessarily be offered every year; from time to time, depending on the exigencies of staffing, additional courses may be offered. The School of Business will only offer electives for which sufficient student demand has been expressed in any one year.
8. For courses offered by the School of Business, the final examination is normally 2 hours in length. Final grading normally will be determined by performance in the final examination (40-60%) and an assessment of coursework (40-60%) except for final project/final papers which will be assessed by 100% coursework.
9. Candidates should take note of any impermissible combinations of majors/minors listed in the document “Major/Minor Programmes offered by FBE” for the year concerned.
10. Candidates are not permitted to enroll in courses where significant portions of the course overlap with each other, or where the courses are mutually exclusive.
11. Each candidate shall be required to take an English Proficiency Test at two different junctures; firstly in Year 1 and secondly in the final or penultimate year of study.

Candidates must undergo a selection process arranged by the Programme Co-ordinator.
